GREETINGS!

We are Dan and Emma, husband and wife team and founders of Tranquil Waters Health and Wellness Retreat.

After being multiple business owners, trapped in the chaos of the never-ending rat race, locked in by successful business that was delivering only unhappiness and stress, we eventually took a step back. A step back that allowed us to look within, be true to ourselves and cultivate a life and business that aligned with us, our values and our dreams.

Selling our successful fitness club made space for us to unleash our beautiful health and wellness retreat and ignite a passion for helping other business owners and managers to bridge the gap between personal well-being and business growth.

With 25 years combined experience in the health and wellness sector (along with being stressed business owners ourselves for many years!), we now help others to cultivate happiness and success in themselves and their team.

“ Absolutely amazing, and highly recommended.
Dan and Emma have put together a hugely effective, and excellent value for money experience.
Better than any spa day I've done, and an invaluable investment in my wellbeing.
Outstanding, thank you. - Lynn

TESTIMONIALS

Boots

A wonderful away day to celebrate being a brand new Social, Content & Influencer team! ✨

Being part of an 'always on' team, it was important we spent time out of the office and did something for our wellbeing 🧘 a day to get to know one another, pause, reflect and set our team mantra.

Across the day we did several workshops about all things teamship, confidence and empowerment, while quieting our minds to allow for increased creativity.

Feeling very grateful to lead such an amazing team. Thank you Tranquil Waters Health Retreat for having us 🌟"

DID YOU KNOW?

"Your brain at positive is 31% more productive than your brain at negative, neutral or stressed." ~Shawn Achor

Research shows that working with a positive mindset improves performance on many levels. Productivity, creativity and engagement of people working from a positive mindset far exceeds those of their negative mindset peers.

Yet, happiness is one of the most misunderstood drivers of performance. 'I'll be happy when xxxx' is something the majority of us find ourselves thinking! 'I'll be happy when I get promoted', 'I'll be happy once I've finished this project', 'I'll be happy when I meet someone'. Seeing success as the predecessor of happiness is probably the error here.

Success is a moving target; once hit, the target simply becomes something else so the resulting happiness becomes ever elusive.

We've got this all wrong! Happiness fuels success, not the other way around! People who cultivate a positive mindset perform better when faced with a challenge.

This is known as 'The Happiness Advantage'.

OUR INTENTION

We look forward to welcoming you and your team to our health and wellness retreat. You will be hosted by Dan and Emma, with the support of our great team - clinical hypnotherapist, Charlotte and sound healer, Becky.

Your team will have the most amazing day with us; leaving with an army of insight, having learnt some take-home methods to build confidence, become happier, less stressed and full of creativity.

Our aim is to empower your team, teaching about the power of thought and the significant impact your mindset has on both personal well-being and business potential. Paying attention to the internal critic and gaining insight into behaviours that don't serve you, opens the door to a happier, more balanced and productive person. Your team will leave us with a greater understanding of themselves, their thought processes and their stress levels, creating a more cohesive and confident team.

We want you and your team to relax the 'thinking' and overburdened analytical mind, leaving the subconscious mind open to plant 'seeds' of confidence and watch them blossom. Your team will emerge from our retreat feeling fresh with ideas popping, confidence growing and self doubt replaced by inner trust.

Most importantly, please come with an open mind. A lot of our methods are scientifically proven and have helped hundreds of clients before you. If you start utilising the methods we teach you in daily life then we guarantee that within a month you will feel totally different and your whole perspective will change. Suddenly, you will feel 'free', no longer trapped in the chaotic rat-race but rather finding calm solace within. We can't control life pressures and other people but what we can control is how we respond to challenges.

Let's press the reset button.

Holistic business coaching takes the whole you into account. Because the whole of who you are (your thoughts, beliefs, feelings, experiences, worldview, values) will impact every aspect of your business.

With a combined 30 years in business, going from being multiple business owners with a turnover of over £500,000 pa with 10 members of staff, to now being more humble business owners, owning one business with no staff, we can certainly relate to you as a business owner and the stress that puts you under. We absolutely 'get it'!

The constant chase, and hunger for more, destroyed us as people. We were physically and mentally sick with stress and unhappiness. We had all the materials we could ever want but were we happy?

Absolutely not...and we see so many business owners follow the same rat-race, dead end route that we did.

What are you working so hard for? To be happy? Happiness isn't the new car you buy. Happiness comes from within, in things like being present with your children, your husband, your wife, and enjoying the time you have on this planet. Don't watch your life flash before your eyes, leaving you wondering 'is that it?'

We coach business owners in a way that bridges the gap between personal well-being and business growth. The perfect recipe for business success lies within and our coaching focuses on cultivating a life, both personal and business, that delivers happiness, presence and success.

You are around 30% more productive when you are less stressed and operating with a positive mindset.

Imagine what you could do with that 30%?

If this resonates with you, you need our help. A day of stress is another day lost.
